

CANADIAN SUNSET

Words and Music by Eddie Heywood and Norman Gimbel
Andy William's first hit

4

Voice 1

1. Once I was a - lone,
2. Cold, cold was the wind;

3

Voice 2

1. Once I was a - lone, yes, I was a - lone,
2. Cold, cold was the wind, yes, cold was the wind;

9

3

So lone - ly and then You came
Warm, warm were your lips, Out there

3

So lone - ly and then, so lone - ly and then You came, you came Warm, warm were your lips, so warm were your lips, Out there, out there

14

3

1.

— out of no - where Like the sun up from the hills.
— on that ski trail Where your kiss filled me with 3

— out of no-where, no-where Like the sun up from the hills.
— on that ski trail, ski trail Where your kiss filled me with 20

2.

3

thrills. A week-end in Can-a-da, A change of scene

3

thrills. A week-end in Can-a-da, A change of scene

27

Was the most I bar - gained for;

Was, it was, the most I bar-gained for, I bar - gained for;

31

And then I dis - cov - ered you, And in your eyes I found a love that I could-n't ig - nore.

35

39

Down, down came the sun; Fast, fast beat my 45

heart; I knew as the sun set,

50

From that day we'd nev - er part.