Regional Managers & Distributor Network

In April '98 Blowtherm USA and DeVilbiss Spray Booth Products merged to create the largest and most experienced distributor network dedicated to spray booth, prep station and mixing room Sales, Installation and Service (S.I.S.) When you contact the Distributor in your area, you'll find a sales professional ready to assist with your equipment needs. Team Blowtherm's regional sales managers are also listed and are ready to provide additional support services.
